NOTES FROM THE DEAN

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year, everyone!

Before looking forward to the year ahead, I would like to say thank you to our Officers and Executive Committee for their good work in 2022. To Pauleta Hendrickson (Sub Dean), John Homko (Treasurer), Susan Eberlein (Secretary), thank you for keeping us informed and organized. To Lois Engelkes, John Garlisch, Kevin Newman, Patricia Oakley, Karen Parsons, and Tom Seamon, thank you for your good ideas and wise counsel throughout the year. To James Yeager, our District Convenor and Sheryl Sebo, our Southwest Regional Councillor, thank you for your wisdom and your caring oversight of our chapter. And to Evelyn Henson, our Web- and Newsletter- master, thank you for your beautiful work that keeps us all informed and in touch.

I will mention briefly here the sudden and untimely passing of Maribeth Gunning, a long-time member of our chapter. We give thanks for her life and her dedication to the organ. Her life and memory are a blessing to the world of music.

Looking forward, we are honored to be a site for the Regional Young Organist Competition. The Competition will take place at St. Luke Lutheran on March 25, 2023. We will need help from many people in order to make this a success! In addition, we have Ingela Onstad's class in February at St. Michael's and All Angels, the Albuquerque

Premiere of Raven Chacón's prize winning Voiceless Mass on Saturday, March 4 at the Cathedral of St. John, our Member's Recital on Sunday, June 4th at 3:00 pm. at the Cathedral of St. John, and the annual Reuter Organ Festival next July. And looking forward to next season, a possible Hymn Workshop collaboration exploring the cultural and poetic aspects of hymns.

With thanks and hopes,

Nancy Granert (Dean)

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

For teachers! For young organists! Born After 1/1/2000?

Albuquerque will be a host city for the 2023 Quimby Regional Young Organists Competition for students born after 1/1/2000. Our round of the competition is tentatively set for Saturday, March 25, 2023, at St. Luke Lutheran.

Cash prizes will be awarded, and the winner will play a recital in the 23/24 season here in Albuquerque. In addition, the Albuquerque winner will compete at the Southwest Regional Convention next June for a spot in the Rising Stars Concert at the National Convention in 2024 in San Francisco.

Watch for the announcement of the rules and the playing requirements in the January TAO.

Chapter Round Repertoire:

For the competitions at the Chapter level, each competitor will perform the following four selections:

A prelude (a toccata or fantasia is acceptable) and fugue or two contrasting movements of a trio sonata by Bach. BWV 582 is acceptable; BWV 553–560 and 572 are not acceptable.

Any one work, composed after 1750, of the competitor's choice. A movement of a larger work, such as a symphony, is acceptable.

A contemporary piece of the competitor's choice published after 1950. When choosing this work, competitors should keep in mind the balance of the program.

Hymn—choose one:

HELMSLEY

REGENT SQUARE

REPTON

The competitor will introduce the hymn and lead the audience in the singing of all verses. At least the first stanza of the hymn must be played from the version downloaded from this page. Published, improvised, or transposed arrangements may be used for the introduction and any subsequent verse, if desired.
